I actually think tying the payment to their shipping IE is a great idea, though I would not do this formally

Subject. RE UUNET Invoice

Hi Susan

There are no invoices with UUNET Pipex. We are to act on the following wording on the contract when UUNET Pipex deliver on shipping IE with their dial up service Given their lack of response in shipping IE I am not in hurry to give them anything right now !!!☹

Hope this clarifies the situation

Fee. MS shall pay UUNET PIPEX a fee (the "Fee") of Five Hundred Thousand Dollars (US$500,000) MS shall pay the Fee to UUNET PIPEX in two tranches. The first tranche of Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000) shall be paid by MS to UUNET PIPEX at such time as UUNET PIPEX fulfils its obligations in accordance with the provisions of Exhibit C and has implemented the features specified in sections 1 and 2 of Exhibit D. The second tranche of Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000) shall be paid by MS to UUNET PIPEX nine (9) months after the date of payment of the first tranche, provided that UUNET PIPEX is still fulfilling its obligations in Exhibit C and has implemented, and has maintained implemented, the features specified in sections 1 and 2 of Exhibit D, unless otherwise agreed in writing between the parties.

What's the status on this? Do we still have an invoice for payment or has UUNET credited it? Please let me know when I need to get involved.

Thanks,
Susan

Geoff:
Cam received an invoice today for $500k from UUNET. Description was "Internet Explorer Training Fund and Startup Expenses". Could this be associated with the PIPEX IE deal?
