Already have your diploma? Congratulations! Know what you're going to do next? If not, are you looking for career options, technical training, or a bridge to higher education?

What does Job Corps offer?

Job Corps helps high school graduates launch their careers. If you haven't graduated from high school, Job Corps can help you earn your diploma or GED.

We have certified training staff ready to help you reach your academic goals and a tutoring program if you are looking for extra guidance.

You also will benefit from mentoring programs that pair you with center staff, career counselors and community leaders.

After you start training, it won't be long until you are focused on finding a job. You will work with Job Corps staff to help find job openings and submit resumes.

“From earning my high school diploma to training for a high-growth career, the people at Job Corps supported and encouraged me every step of the way. Now I'm ready for the life I always wanted.”

– Sean,
Brooklyn
Job Corps Center

Job Corps graduates get good jobs and have the support they need to start a successful career.

When your training at Job Corps is complete, Job Corps will work with you for up to 21 months after you graduate.

What happens once I complete training?

Job Corps understands that being independent involves more than just having a job. So when your training at Job Corps is complete, counselors will assist you while you look for a job ... and help you connect with local housing, transportation and day-care resources in your neighborhood.

Don't have a resume? Don't worry. You'll create one at Job Corps and learn how to put your best foot forward with employers.

When you leave Job Corps you will be on the road to a career with high wages and the chance to move up in your field.

Job Corps will help you get started.

“I know Job Corps will be there for me after I graduate. They will help me find job interviews, create a resume or just find a ride to work.”
