

U.S., Germany Exchange NCOs

When it comes right down to it, German and American NCOs have a lot in common. They go home and 'talk Army' with their spouses and comrades. And, they both look for ways to enhance professional development programs for NCOs.

SSG Edward Chandler (left) and SFC Antony Hanna recently returned from Germany, where they spent four weeks attending a platoon leaders course. Two German NCOs attended a similar course at the same time at Ft. Bliss, TX.

Read about their reactions and opinions on page 6.