

METHOD 25E

DETERMINATION OF VAPOR PHASE ORGANIC CONCENTRATION IN WASTE SAMPLES

EPA's Office of Air Quality Planning and Standards (OAQPS) developed this method to determine the vapor pressure of organic constituents in a waste sample using a flame ionization detector (FID). See 40 CFR 60, Appendix A, Test Methods, for a copy of Method 25E.