The U.S. Department of Agriculture and the Ohio Department of Agriculture are currently conducting work on the Asian Longhorned Beetle (ALB) Eradication Program. The following program-related activities will be conducted:

- Ground survey/tree-climbing survey for signs of ALB
- Infested/high-risk host tree removal and/or site restoration
- Post-removal and restoration site evaluation for completeness of work and to monitor condition of restored areas
- Post-removal and restoration site evaluation for completeness of work and to monitor condition of restored areas
- Post-removal and restoration site evaluation for completeness of work and to monitor condition of restored areas
- Other program activities listed below

If you have questions about ALB control and eradication, please call 1-866-702-9938.

Thank you for your cooperation. If you have any

We recently visited your property to conduct the following

We will recheck your tree in the near future.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture is an equal opportunity provider and employer.

Contact:

Anita Jones
Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service

Address: __________________________________________

Area: _________     Zone: _________     Unit: _________

Date: _______________________

Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service

Ohio Department of Agriculture
Staff from the U.S. Department of Agriculture and the Ohio Department of Agriculture are currently conducting work on this property to eradicate the Asian longhorned beetle (ALB). Other exotic pests can spread into new areas is by people unintentionally moving infested plant materials. To keep this infested areas. If you have questions about ALB control and eradication PuMLZ H[PVUWSLHZLJHSS ZH[ VY.