Open season will be as follows: September 1 to December 31, 2007.
September 29 to December 31, 2007.

Only deer may be hunted. Hunters may not enter closed areas of the refuge for any reason, except for the recovery of legally harvested animals with the consent of a refuge employee, and in that case may not carry a weapon.

Only shotguns, muzzleloaders, or archery equipment may be used on open areas east and north of Vermont Route 78. Rifles may not be used in these areas at any time.

During the State-designated muzzleloader season and Youth Deer Hunting Weekend, hunters may hunt the Long Marsh and Metcalfe Island areas, in addition to other open areas.

All hunters, during the State regular firearms season, Youth Deer Hunting Weekend, and muzzleloader deer hunt must wear in a conspicuous manner on head, chest and back a minimum of 400 square inches of solid-colored hunter orange clothing or material.

Permanent tree stands and ground blinds are prohibited. Temporary portable tree stands and ground blinds are acceptable in accordance with state regulations guiding their use on state wildlife management areas. Written notation from the refuge manager is required on the big game permit prior to leaving a temporary stand or blind unattended. However, this does not grant exclusive use of an area or site.
