Office Memorandum

DATE: February 13, 1956

FROM: A. H. Belmont

SUBJECT: WALTER WINCHELL BROADCAST
FEBRUARY 12, 1956

WINCHELL SAID:

"Washington Post: The U.S. Internal Security Committee has subpoenaed a large group of Americans working for Tass News. This agency feeds news to Russia. They appear this week in executive session. One is an American-born girl from Washington, D. C."

COMMENT:

We were informed previously of intention of Senate Internal Security Subcommittee to subpoena a number of U. S. citizens who have been employed by Tass. The American-born girl from Washington, D. C., apparently is a former Washington correspondent for Tass, who was released by Tass in July, 1955, when Tass dispensed with services of American employees. Following her release, we considered interviewing her, but decided not to do so. At that time we knew Senate Subcommittee was interested in interviewing her. On 2/6/56, we received information to the effect she has been subpoenaed.

WINCHELL SAID:

"New York Daily Mirror: Harvey Matusow - he worked both sides of the fence - goes to trial in Federal Court, New York, on the 20th."

COMMENT:

Matusow's trial on perjury indictment in Southern District of New York is scheduled for 2/20/56, but the U. S. Attorney expects it will actually go to trial within one or two weeks after that date.
Memorandum for Mr. Boardman

WINCHELL SAID:

"New York City: A political scandal, ladies and gentlemen, that received puny attention in the New York papers was the Paul Hughes case. Hughes was acquitted of perjury. The New York World Telegram-Sun was one of the very few newspapers to feature the verdict on the editorial page as well as its opinion. The following slap in the face is from that exciting editorial: "Regardless of the verdict, the Hughes case uncovered for the public a shabby plot to smear Senator Joseph McCarthy. Whether one likes Senator McCarthy or not, the effort to use bogus, derogatory information against him merits only contempt. Another sequel to the Hughes trial must be the flushed faces in the ADA (that's the Americans for Democratic Action) which, says the World Telegram-Sun editorial, has made so much righteous to-do about the use of paid informers.""

COMMENT:

For your information. Hughes was acquitted on 2/3/56 of perjury. He had been charged with lying to a grand jury investigating Harvey Matusow.

WINCHELL SAID:

"Broadway: And the fact that America's best known blonde movie star is now the darling of the left-wing intelligentsia, several of whom are listed as red fronters. I do not think she realizes it."

COMMENT:

This possibly refers to Marilyn Monroe. A recent news article concerning the divorce action between Arthur Asher Miller, prominent author, and his wife, reflected it was rumored Marilyn Monroe was linked romantically with Miller. On interview by newsmen both of them admitted friendship but denied any romantic ties. Miller is the author of "Death of a Salesman.

[Redaction: We have not conducted security investigation concerning Marilyn Monroe.]

WINCHELL SAID:

"Washington: Two very prominent musical comedy authors on Broadway, formerly married to each other, have been positively identified as Communist Party members in secret testimony. They will be subpoenaed by a Congressional committee next Tuesday."

COMMENT:

On the basis of limited identifying data, check at Seat of Government and at New York Office has failed to identify individuals referred to above. Discreet inquiries are continuing in effort to identify these individuals. At this time we have no knowledge of committee hearings scheduled for Tuesday to interrogate such individuals.

"Playwright Arthur Miller reported next husband of Marilyn Monroe will get his marital freedom tomorrow. Next stop, trouble. The House Un-American Committee subpoena, too. Arthur Miller will check into the inner circle, which also happens to be the inner circle of Miss Monroe, all former communist sympathizers.

"In a letter of Miller's from and 'Hotel de la Caneuse', which is a Gestapo camp, and also in the Gestapo record of the Gestapo's Caneuse. He has been a member of the inner circle since 1944, 1945, and 1946. The committee believes that Miller is now in the Gestapo's Caneuse. He will be picked up by the Gestapo in the Gestapo's Caneuse.

"Miller said:

"Senator H. F. The Senate investigation will start very sensational. The Senator will investigate the Gestapo's Caneuse. Miller will be picked up by the Gestapo in the Gestapo's Caneuse, who lost his sight in the fight against labor racketeers."

Congressman have urged a thorough investigation into the matter of the Gestapo's Caneuse. The committee will investigate. The investigation will be thorough. Miller will be picked up by the Gestapo in the Gestapo's Caneuse.

Subject: WALTER WINCHELL'S BROADCAST

July 1, 1956

DATE: July 2, 1956

Winchell's broadcast was not carried locally on station WWDC due to the broadcast of a baseball game. The following items of interest to the Bureau in Winchell's broadcast of above date were obtained from the New York Office.

WINCHELL SAID:

Playwright Arthur Miller, husband of Marilyn Monroe, refused to disclose names of comrades with whom he once attended Red front meetings. Committee will astound Miller by telling him those nine names.

COMMENTS:

Miller was under communist discipline in the 1930s and was a CP member in 1943, 1946, and 1947. He has been a member of or connected with a number of CP front organizations. Miller testified before HUAC on 5/21/56, and admitted having attended meetings in 1939, 1940 which he understood were meetings of CP writers, however, Miller refused to furnish any names. Miller also admitted having contributed to communist fronts.

WINCHELL SAID:

International news, London - "Time and Tide," British publication, had a remarkable scoop. "Now that the cruel ways of Joe Stalin have been abandoned we hope that Mrs. Khruschev will be released from Siberia. She was arrested and deported in 1938 by Stalin for whom Mr. Khruschev was carrying out mass purges.

MEMORANDUM

To: Mr. Boardman

Subject: War in North Africa

Comment:

For Information.

WINCHELL SAID:

Washington - Dr. J. B. Matthews, former staff director of the McCarthy Senate Committee, is scheduled to testify before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee on July 10. Matthews was cited as a Communist sympathizer by the Senate Committee.

Matthews was one of the first to testify before the Senate Committee on April 23. Matthews' testimony was considered damaging to the Committee's efforts to expose Communist sympathizers.

Comment:

Winchell is referring to the study of blacklisting, based on the testimony of Matthews, which was presented to the Senate Committee on April 23. The study was conducted by the House Un-American Activities Committee.

WINCHELL SAID:

W. W. discussed with President Johnson and the Congressional Investigation Committee. W. W. said some people are confused. They confuse Marx and Lenin with Rebuttal. W. W. states that the Government is not trying to interfere with the romance of Miller and Monroe. Some papers give that impression. Mr. Miller testified that he once supported the Red Front outfits, but he refused to some members of that committee who attended meetings with him. Mr. Miller said he could not name them on the grounds of conscience. Dr. W. C. Andrews Communists Party as criminal conspiracy and the effect of such act on Communist Party. Mr. Miller testified that he stopped all Red front activity ten years ago. Before I go into detail, I want to add that Mr. Miller’s conscience did not stop him from following Communists or having Joseph Rauh, Jr., as his lawyer. Mr. Rauh reportedly paid $3,000 to a fellow named Paul Hughes as an informant whose stuff just did not stand up before a United States Senator. Anyway, Miller testified he stopped all Red front activity 10 years ago. I am now in possession of a pamphlet which shows Arthur Miller was either mistaken or perhaps his name was misspelled or he lied underneath. This pamphlet names Miller as sponsor of the Citizens Emergency Defense Conference to “Defend the Smith Act Victims.” The Smith Act is the only law to jail convicted Reds. Mr. Miller testified he quit all Red fronts 10 years ago. This pamphlet shows that Miller was sponsor of this pro-red conference in New York City March 11, 1952, or 4 years ago.

COMMENTS:

Miller is not a contributor. The Citizens Emergency Defense Conference now known as the Communist has been cited by the government. Mr. Miller was listed on the executive board of a group in 1952. Paul Hughes was tried and acquitted in connection with the Senate. Hughes and others wrote a letter to Senator Joseph McCarthy.

WINCHELL SAID:

Inside the Communist Party. Seven Communist Party members were recently arrested in Boston for violation of the Smith Act. The 7 Boston Reds approached 22 law firms trying to get permanent counsel. All 22 firms turned them down.

Movie Stars Named in Magazine Inquiry

Sources of Tabloid Tales Revealed

It was disclosed that Rome Quillan, faded veteran of Hollywood, confided freely to his old friend that he had heard a whisper that the leading lady of a recent picture had some former amour affairs which might come to light at a later date. The actress, who was a graduate of a famous acting school, was said to have been a favorite of a former leading man who had recently died. The gossip was so hot that the actress' agent, a notorious Hollywood fixer, had already been in touch with a leading producer about the situation.

Miss Quillan said she first heard of Confidential when she was offered a contract to appear in a stage production. She rejected the offer, but she was later offered a role in a major motion picture. When she declined, the studio executive, who was also a well-known literary agent, warned her that her refusal could cost her a lot of money. Miss Quillan, who was then in the midst of a difficult divorce settlement, was said to have been flattered by the attention.

Although Harrison said he wasn't interested in the story, he decided to proceed with the investigation. He hired private investigators to track down the source of the gossip and to determine if it was true. The investigation was delayed several times due to the actress' public appearances.

Revealed $16,000

She said she sold a story to Confidential magazine about Desi Arnaz, which she had kept confidential for 10 years. She said that Confidential's article made the incident appear to be a recent one.

She said she was paid $16,000 by Harrison for stories on Ava Gardner and Ginger Rogers. She testified that Private Eyes and Confidential had been in touch about her source. She said she had been paid for stories about Desi Arnaz.

Bears Out Statement

The transcript bore out statements by Desi Arnaz that Miss Quillan had told him about her previous affair with a former leading man who had recently died. The actress, who had recently been divorced, was said to have been in the midst of a difficult divorce settlement.

'Episode Smelled'

Virginia Lee, also known as Joan Morgan, testified that she did not know the nature of the work she was doing for her boss, Private Detective H. L. von Wittenberg, until after she was told to go after Desi Arnaz. She said the episode smelt, and she told Harrison this was not so.

In the end, Harrison was forced to admit that he had been wrong in his investigation. He apologized to the actress and promised to make amends. The case was dropped, and the actress was able to move on with her life. She was said to have been grateful for the support of her friends and family.

Information on Tufts

It was Frank J. Goldberg, an unemployed Hollywood writer, who testified he sold the story about Sonny Tufts. He was said to have been living on the streets when he was approached by the actress. He said he was told to keep the story confidential and to avoid telling anyone about it.

he paid $150 by Hollywood research. As Confidential's special listening post, he said, "But, he added, the result of this is Open Letter to Marjorie. This contained the story I never knew about Sonny."

Jerry McCarthy, Los Angeles newspaperman, said Rushmore contacted him to pick up a story about Joan Crawford. His story was about her relationship with Ronald Reagan. But McCarthy, who is not in the confidence of the loco, said he was thinking about the story. Because, he said, he was getting a little bit of the whole thing.

Former Bay Friends

Booth and Howard were among the circle of friends that included Anita Ekberg. In those days, he said, they were all in Hollywood and subsequently in London. Rushmore said that while in London, he ran into Marjorie Meade, a friend of Joan's. Rushmore and Meade had a conversation about the article about Novak's suicide. Rushmore said he learned from confidential sources that the story was true and that his friend had committed suicide.

Rushmore, according to the Confidential, estimated that the article would be used in the layout. The story was titled "Kiss and Tell," he said.

Wrong Door Raid

Rushmore said it was Private Detective Barney Ruditsky who supplied missing details of the famous wrong door raid involving Frank Sinatra, Joe DiMaggio and Marilyn Monroe after one of Ruditsky's operatives apparently sold the original information.

Following that, Rushmore said, Ruditsky returned to Hollywood and subsequently sold information about "Mickey Rooney's break-up" and "Marilyn Monroe's break-up." Rushmore worked closely with Marjorie Meade, a friend of Joan's, and her husband Fred. Rushmore said Francesca DeScafla, a writer for the Daily News, supplied 90% of our "Hollywood material over a period of three years."

Also Got Fired

He bawled me out, he said. "You went out there and spent a lot of money and people came up with... a couple of stories that the Daily News or even the New York Times would use!"

Rushmore said Harrison hired Miss Muir and her husband after three months. But Rushmore said that when he told Harrison, he didn't trust the sort of information who would sell information about former girl friends. Harrison retorted, "That is the kind of stuff we need!"

Walter Winchell, Rushmore testified, had no financial interest in Confidential. But he did give several boosts, because Harrison was shrewd enough to defend Winchell against the fightings and good publicity who attacked him.

Of the 15 persons and five corporations indicted, only the Meade's have surrendered on bench warrants to date.

es, the rumors are true. Just before she took her life, Marilyn Monroe asked one of the world’s most talented photographers to shoot series of nude studies of herself. These last photographs of Marilyn Monroe are without doubt the love photographs ever taken of the most beloved woman of our time. So startling are they, in fact, that Miss Monroe—who saw them before she died—specifically instructed the photographer to be sure to see that they were published.

These photographs of Marilyn Monroe in the full flower of her beauty—a fitting memento of the woman who did so much to rid our nation of the baneful effects of puritanism. Obviously, these are the photographs by which Marilyn Monroe wanted to be remembered.

A portfolio of these handsome photographs—comprising perhaps the best photographic essay of our age—appear as a special feature in the next issue of EROS. The portfolio, 24 pages long, consists of almost photographic studies, many in glossy color, together with the full story of how these pictures came to be taken.

This photographic essay—a collector’s item never again obtainable—appears exclusively in EROS and is seen by no one but EROS subscribers.

What is EROS? EROS represents this country’s first attempt to produce a really worthy magazine on the ever-fascinating subjects of Love and Sex. Until now, these subjects have been relegated to cheap and tawdry periodicals.

In EROS, the talents of the world’s most gifted writers, artists and photographers have been mustered and applied to a periodical of elegance and grace. Subjects which customarily have been sensationalized or degraded are handled in EROS with dignity and good taste.

ERS is a unique intellectual commodity. It is literate without being stuffy, bold without being sensational and artistic without being obscure.

In a typical issue of EROS you will find such diverse and often abstruse features as:

- Masterpieces of Erotic Art. The unknown or long-suppressed works of such masters as Rodin, Titian, Rembrandt, Michelangelo, Hogarth, Toulouse-Lautrec and Picasso.
- Was Shakespeare a Homosexual? A problem which has perplexed scholars for centuries is tackled by a noted biographer.
- The Erotic Sculpture of India. Twenty-two pages of statuary in a forthcoming issue of EROS depict the Hindu Art of Love, with text by the distinguished author Santuha Rama Rau.
- Slave Owners and Negro Concubines. Recapitulation of a little known chapter of 19th-century history.

In the belles lettres and beaux arts of mankind. In format, EROS resembles the most costly of art books. It is of fine quality and is bound in hard covers for permanent preservation. Each issue looks like an expensive limited edition volume (which, in a sense, it is, since EROS is published in an edition of only 75,000 copies).

The Saturday Review has dubbed EROS “The American Heritage of the bedroom.”

Enclosed is an item received from a former Special Agent, who is currently Field Representative, Appointment Section, Governor's Office, State of California. The former Agent advised that he does not know the source and cannot evaluate the authenticity of this information.
Robert Kennedy had been having a romance and sex affair over a period of time with Marilyn Monroe. He had met her, the first date being arranged by his sister and brother-in-law, Mrs. and Mr. Peter Lawford. Robert Kennedy had been spending much time in Hollywood during the last part of 1961 and early 1962, in connection with his trying to have a film made of his book dealing with the crime investigations. He used to meet with producer Jerry Wald. He was reported to be intensely jealous of the fact that they had been making a film of John F. Kennedy’s book of the PT boat story.

Robert Kennedy was deeply involved emotionally with Marilyn Monroe, and had repeatedly promised to divorce his wife to marry Marilyn. Eventually Marilyn realized that Bobby had no intention of marrying her and about this time, 20th Century Fox studio had decided to cancel her contract. She had become very unreliable, being late for set, etc. In addition, the studio was in financial difficulty due to the large expenditures caused in the filming of “Cleopatra”.

The studio notified Marilyn that they were cancelling her contract. This was right in the middle of a picture she was making. They decided to replace her with actress Lee Remick. Marilyn telephoned Robert Kennedy from her home at Brentwood, California, person-to-person, at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C., to tell him the bad news. Robert Kennedy told her not to worry about the contract— he would take care of everything. When nothing was done, she again called him from her home to the Department of Justice, person-to-person, and on this occasion they had unpleasant words. She was reported to have threatened to make public their affair. On the day that Marilyn died, Robert Kennedy was in town, and registered at the Beverly Hills Hotel. By coincidence, this is across the street from the house in which a number of years earlier his father, Joseph Kennedy, had lived for a time, common-law, with Gloria Swanson.

Peter Lawford, a friend from Marilyn’s friends, asserted that she often made suicide threats and that she was inclined to fake a suicide attempt in order to arouse sympathy. Lawford is reported as having made “special arrangements” with Marilyn’s psychiatrist, Dr. Ralph Greenson, of Beverly Hills. The psychiatrist was treating Marilyn for emotional problems and getting off the use of barbiturates. On her last visit to him, he prescribed sedative tablets, and gave her a prescription for 20 of them, which was unusual in quantity especially since she saw him frequently.

On the date of her death, March 4, 1962, her housekeeper put the bottle of pills on the night table. It is reported the housekeeper and Marilyn’s personal secretary and press agent, Pat Newcombe, were cooperating in the plan to induce suicide. Pat Newcombe was rewarded for her cooperation by being put on the Federal payroll as top assistant to George Stevens, Jr., head of the Motion Picture Division of the U.S. Information Service. Her father, George Stevens Sr., is a left-wing Hollywood director, who is well known for spearheading the making of slanted and left-wing pictures. One of his was the “Diary of Anne Frank.” Pat Newcombe was flown within 48 hours.
Los Angeles International Airport, where he flew into the St. Francis Hotel. The owner of this hotel is a Mr. London, a friend of Robert Kennedy. Robert Kennedy made arrangements for a taxi to pick up Mr. London from St. Charles Hotel, San Francisco, to Peter Lawford to find out if Marilyn was dead yet. Peter Lawford had called Marilyn's number and left a message for her, and then thought again later to make sure she did not answer. Marilyn's housekeeper, after she had taken the second tablet, called psychiatrist for Marilyn and said she had taken the bottle of pills. Marilyn expected to have her stomach pumped out and to get sympathy through her suicide attempt. The psychiatrist left word for Marilyn to take a drive in the fresh air, but did not come to see her until after she was known to be dead. Marilyn received a call from Joe D'Arrigo, who was in the U.S. Marines, stationed at Camp Pendleton, California. They were very friendly. Marilyn told him she was getting very sleepy. The last call she attempted to make was to Peter Lawford to return a call she had made to her. Joe D'Arrigo, Sr., known the whole story and is reported to have stated when Robert Kennedy got out of office, he intends to kill him. He knows of the affair between Robert Kennedy and Marilyn.

Pat Newcombe, Marilyn's former secretary and press agent, in a friend of mine. He took her to a beatnik joint in San Francisco where they heard a singer, to represent the United States in a cultural exchange program in Poland, which was a talent contest. He went as a U.S. representative.

Marilyn also had an intermittent lesbian affair with a woman while Robert was carrying on his affair with Marilyn Monroe, on a few occasions. John F. Kennedy came out and had sex parties with the actress. Chief of Police Parker, of the Los Angeles Police Department, has the call logs of the telephone company on the calls made from Marilyn's residence telephone. They are in his safe at Los Angeles Headquarters. Florabell Hall, the columnist, has considerable information and knowledge of the Robert F. Kennedy and Marilyn Monroe affair. She personally saw the telephone call records. Marilyn Monroe's psychiatrist, although he knew she had taken the pills, did not come to her home until after she was dead. He made contact with the coroner and an arrangement was made for a psychiatric board of inquiry to be appointed by the coroner, an unheard of procedure in the area. This was the findings could be recorded that she was emotionally unbalanced. It was reported this arrangement was to discredit any statements she may have made before she died.
In December 1963, an article on the Marilyn Monroe case indicated a book was being written and mentions a tie-in with a high Washington, D.C., official, George Stevens, Jr., of the U.S. Information Agency, heads a unit that makes films for the U.S. Government. He previously was an assistant for his father. He was a first lieutenant in the U.S. Air Force, 1934 - 1945, and was appointed director of the Motion Picture Service Agency, a division of U.S. Information Agency on January 31, 1963.

During the period of time that Robert F. Kennedy was having his sex affair with Marilyn Monroe, on one occasion a sex party was conducted at which several other persons were present. Tap recording was secretly made and is in the possession of a Los Angeles private detective agency. The detective was paid $2,000 for a certified copy of the recording, in which all the voices are identifiable.

BACKGROUND

Residence

T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on June 11, 1956, that he had been at that time resident at [redacted] Brooklyn, New York, and was then at [redacted].

Employment

An article in the "Daily Worker," edition of September 29, 1955, [redacted]. The "Daily Worker" is an East Coast Communist newspaper.

Marital Status

An article in the "New York Journal American," a daily newspaper, edition of June 10, 1956, Page 2-L, Columns 3 and 4, reflected that playwright ARTHUR MILLER was at that time at Reno, Nevada, preparing to divorce the former MARY GRACE SLATTERY of New York. According to the article, MILLER's name had recently been linked romantically with actress MARILYN MONROE. The article further reflected that MILLER had established the necessary six-weeks residence for divorce at the Pyramid Lake Guest Ranch near Reno.

New York City Youth Board, on November 22, 1955, contacted ASAC DONALD E. MOORE and advised that the Youth Board had planned to do a film in collaboration with Independent Artists and United Artists on youth gangs in New York City. (X)

Stated that the Youth Board had been advised by the corporation counsel that MILLER had been a member of five organizations cited by the Attorney General of the United States. The names of the organizations were not specified. (X)

Stated that in view of the controversy regarding MILLER, he had been requested by RALPH WHALEN, Executive Director of the New York City Youth Board, to contact the FBI to see if the FBI could furnish any advice or could possibly have ARTHUR MILLER subpoenaed before some committee.

MILLER was advised of the confidential nature of the files of the FBI and was told that this office could be of no assistance to him in this matter.

CONFIDENTIAL

Michigan State Police,Subversive Squad, Ann Arbor, Michigan, advised the Detroit Office on December 5, 1955, that DONALD T. APPEL of the House Un-American Activities Committee was at that time in Ann Arbor conducting an investigation on ARTHUR MILLER, the author and playwright. MILLER was described as an alumnus of the...
Engagement Party

There were so many newspapermen milling around the lobby of the apartment house on New York's East Side that the superintendent said they were a fire hazard, and the tenants grumbled about calling the police.

The reporters wanted to see the woman in apartment 8-E, but she didn't want to see them. She didn't feel like it, and besides, she hadn't yet made up her face. So far as she was concerned, they could just keep milling, while she lounged around watching a repairman tinker with her air conditioning.

Which is precisely what they did, until the repairman came downstairs. Then they mobbed him: Did she say anything? Was it true?

Was she going to marry him?

Triumphantly, the repairman replied: "She said to me: 'Sure I'm going to be married.' She was wearing form-fitting beige toreador pants."

In that haphazard way, the world learned last week of the engagement of Miss Marilyn Monroe, a motion-picture actress of parts ("How to Marry a Millionaire"), to Arthur Miller, a playwright of parts ("Death of a Salesman"). The engagement already had been reported

The repairman said: 'They'll wed.'

I'd like it to be simple...something that looks like a wedding dress.

Who had done the proposing?

"I guess he sort of initiated it," she said. "It was sort of simultaneous."

And, finally, what about Miller's testimony in Washington last year that he was affiliated with a host of Communist fronts though he never was under Communist discipline?

"I don't know much about politics. I'll have to have a talk with him and I think he's very tired. He's had quite a day."

Politics might play a role in the honeymoon anyway. At the week's end there were rumors in Washington that Miller might be cited for contempt for refusal to name his associates in his pre-Communist days, and he still had no passport. His last application, in 1954, was denied, but he said he is now prepared to sign the State Department's non-Communist oath.
Subject presently in England, was issued Passport Number 129936 on 7/6/56. MILLER appeared before HCUA on 6/21/56. He admitted signing many appeals and protests issued by "Red front groups in the last decade" but denied he was ever under Communist discipline. MILLER, when asked if he signed an application to join the CP in 1939 or 1940, stated he had signed what he thought to be an application for a "study course" in Marxism. He refused to name persons he had seen at CP Writers meetings. On 7/10/56 and 7/25/56, the HCUA and the U. S. House of Representatives, respectively, voted to cite ARTHUR MILLER for contempt of Congress.
 DETAILS:

I. BACKGROUND

A. Residence

An article in the July 10, 1956, edition of the "Daily Worker" captioned "MILLERS Fly to England Friday" reflected that ARTHUR MILLER and actress MARILYN MONROE would fly to England on Friday (July 13, 1956) on a honeymoon and business trip.

The "Daily Worker" is an East Coast Communist daily newspaper.

[Signature]

Chief, Passport Legal Division, Passport Office, Department of State, advised on July 6, 1956, that ARTHUR MILLER was issued Passport Number 129936 on July 6, 1956, limited to expire in sixth month, not to be extended without the express authorization of the Department of State. In his passport application, dated May 17, 1956, at Reno, Nevada, MILLER stated he intended to proceed by plane to England from New York City for a period of one month to six weeks approximately July 15, 1956, to cast and assist in production of his play, "A View From The Bridge."

An article in the August 29, 1956, edition of the "New York Daily News" reflected that on that date, ARTHUR MILLER had arrived in New York from England to spend ten days to two weeks with his children. The article reflected that at the end of that time, MILLER would probably return to England to rejoin his bride, actress MARILYN MONROE.

An article in the September 12, 1956, edition of the "New York Daily News" reflected ARTHUR MILLER had returned to England. [Signature]

C1-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on June 28, 1956, could furnish no information regarding the subject.
B. Marital Status

An article in the July 3, 1956 edition of the "Daily Worker" reflected that ARTHUR MILLER and MARILYN MONROE were married in a civil ceremony at White Plains, New York, on Friday, (June 29, 1956), and were subsequently remarried at Katonah, New York, on July 1, 1956, in the Jewish faith.

II. AFFILIATION WITH THE COMMUNIST MOVEMENT

A. Miscellaneous Activities

An article in the June 21, 1956, edition of the "New York Journal American", a daily newspaper, captioned "House To Quiz MILLER On Passport Dispute", reflected that ARTHUR MILLER, Broadway playwright, would interrupt his romance with Hollywood's MARILYN MONROE, "today" to appear before the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA). According to the article, MILLER was scheduled to testify on his "passport battle" with the United States State Department and further that the members were certain to quiz MILLER on his alleged links with "some 29 organizations cited as Communist fronts by the House Committee on Un-American Activities or the United States Attorney General."

An article in the "New York Times", a daily newspaper, edition of June 22, 1956, datelined June 21, 1956, and captioned "ARTHUR MILLER Admits Helping Communist Front Groups In 40's", reflected that MILLER "discloses today a past filled with Communist front associations." According to the article, MILLER told the HCUA he had signed many appeals and protests issued by "Red front groups" in the last decade. He denied being "under Communist discipline."

The above article reflected that MILLER was asked about his sponsorship of a World Youth Festival in Prague in 1947; the signature on a 1947 statement against the outlawing of the CP; a signature on a statement defending GERHARDT EISLER before he fled this country to become a top Communist official in East Germany; a statement attacking the HCUA; and statements opposing the Senate seat. The article reflected that MILLER stated he had no memory of most of these things but that he would not deny them.
MILLER said that he was not directed or misled into attending CP meetings but rather that his growing up in the depression and maturing in the midst of war, and many forces in his personal life led him for a time to seek in Marxism a fount of authority, from which might flow a stream of values, in which "I could wholly have faith." The article further reflected that MILLER said he came away from CP meetings convinced that his temperament and viewpoints were diametrically opposed to those of Marxists.

An article in the July 11, 1956, edition of the "New York Daily News," captioned "Vote Contempt Citation Against ARTHUR MILLER" reflected that on July 10, 1956, that the HCUA voted a contempt citation against ARTHUR MILLER.

An article in the July 26, 1956, edition of the "New York Journal American" captioned "MILLER Prosecution Studied by BROWNELL" reflected that on July 25, 1956, the United States House of Representatives voted to cite MILLER for contempt of Congress and that the Justice Department was deciding whether to prosecute MILLER upon his return from England where he was honeymooning with actress MARILYN MONROE.

B. Communist Party (CP) Fronts

A. National Council of the Arts, Sciences, and Professions (NCASP)

The Congressional Committee on Un-American Activities, Review of the Scientific and Cultural Conference for World Peace, arranged by the National Council of the Arts, Sciences, and Professions, and held in New York City, on March 25, 26, and 27, 1949, House Report No. 1954, April 26, 1950, (originally released April 19, 1949) page 2, describes the National Council of the Arts, Sciences, and Professions as "cited as a Communist front."
Careful consideration has been given to each source concealed and T symbols were utilized only in those instances where the identity of the sources must be concealed.

ADMINISTRATIVE

[Redacted] Reporter, "New York Daily News," on 7/11/56, furnished information that on 7/3/56, the "New York Daily News" received an anonymous telephone call from an unidentified male during which he stated that ARTHUR MILLER had been and still was a member of the CP and was their cultural front man. The anonymous caller said that MILLER's religious marriage ceremony to actress MARILYN MONROE and MILLER's public statements were so much cover up. [Redacted] stated that according to the anonymous caller, MARILYN MONROE had drifted into the Communist orbit and money from MARILYN MONROE Productions was finding its way into the CP. This source stated that MARILYN MONROE Productions was filled with Communists.

RE: ARTHUR ASHER MILLER

Arthur Asher Miller was born on October 17, 1915, in New York, New York. As of June, 1956, he resided at 155 Willow Street, Brooklyn, New York. Miller, a playwright, is the author of the play "Death of a Salesman." On June 29, 1956, he was married to Marilyn Monroe, motion-picture actress.

Miller has been reported to have been a member of the Communist Party (CP) in the 1940's and to have been associated with numerous communist-dominated organizations from 1946 to 1950. He testified before a subcommittee of the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., on June 21, 1956. Miller admitted having attended 5 or 6 meetings of CP writers in 1947 but denied having been under CP discipline. In response to a question concerning whether he had signed an application to join the CP Miller testified that in 1939 or 1940, he had signed what he thought to be an application for a study course in Marxism but that he did not know the exact nature of the application. He refused to discuss activities of any other individuals and was, therefore, on July 25, 1956, cited for contempt of the House of Representatives, United States Congress. Contempt of Congress is an offense subject to criminal prosecution.

On July 6, 1956, Miller was issued Passport Number 129936, good for a period of 6 months, not to be extended without express authorization of the United States Department of State. In his passport application Miller stated he intended to proceed by plane from New York City to England about July 15, 1956, for a period of one month to 6 weeks to cast and assist in production of his play "A View From the Bridge." New York City newspaper articles reflected that on August 29, 1956, Miller had arrived in New York from England to see his children and that as of September 19, 1956, he had returned to England.

Miller Wins Reversal Of Contempt Sentence

Appeals Court Rules Walter Failed To Clarify Command to Playwright

By HOWARD L. DUTKIN

The full nine-man bench of the United States Court of Appeals today reversed a contempt of Congress conviction of Playwright Arthur Miller, husband of Actress Marilyn Monroe.

Mr. Miller was convicted in Federal District Court here last year for refusing to tell the House Committee on Un-American Activities the names of Communist writers with whom he had met in New York in 1947.

The appellate court directed the District court to enter a judgment of acquittal.

The appellate court found that Chairman Walter of the House committee failed to make definitely known to Mr. Miller that he was being commanded to answer the question at issue.

The court pointed out that after the question was first asked, Mr. Miller requested that the question be suspended until a later time.

Lack of Clarity Found

The court found that the chairman did not make clear later that the question was being insisted upon.

Attorney Joseph Rauh, Jr. representing Mr. Miller, also had contended that the question was not pertinent to the subject under inquiry by the committee. At the time, the committee was investigating the abuse of passport privileges by Communists.

On the pertinency issue, the court declared that in view of its ruling on the direction to answer, it was unnecessary to go into the pertinency question.

Opinion Unsigned

"The appellant (Mr. Miller) had the right to leave the hearing thinking that the direction to answer was still suspended if not abandoned," the court held. The opinion was unsigned.

District Court Judge Charles F. McLaughlin had given Mr. Miller a suspended 20-day jail sentence and imposed a $100 fine.

A visa for Marilyn Monroe (above) to visit the Soviet Union has been applied for, according to Dr. Carleton Smith, head of the advisory art committee of the National Art Foundation.

Dr. Smith reported in London that a visa for Miss Monroe was being sought as part of a cultural exchange program.

In New York, Miss Monroe said: "I am looking forward to visiting Russia and other countries. I have not applied for a Soviet visa but there is a possibility I may visit there some time in the future."

FROM: SAC, NEW YORK (100-120348)
SUBJECT: SM-C

Enclosed herewith are 4 copies of the report of SA dated and captioned as above, at NY.

Subject was contacted at 9 A.M., on 9/21/56 by SAS and Assistant in front of Sagamore Cafeteria, 8th St. and 3rd Ave., NYC, from subject's residence. After being advised of the identity of the Agents, a request was made to speak with the subject regarding a confidential matter. Subject readily admitted his identity and agreed to accompany the Agents to a Bureau car parked at a discreet distance from the place of contact. Here the Agents re-introduced themselves and again displayed their credentials. The subject shook hands with both Agents and carefully examined their credentials, while engaging in friendly conversation. In this conversation subject indicated that he was presently attending a NY college in pursuit of his MA degree in and that he was not presently employed.

It was pointed out to the subject that the Agents might possibly be known in the neighborhood, and he agreed to ride with them to a less conspicuous area. This was done and subject was interviewed on an untraveled portion of E. 10th St., NYC, until approximately 12 noon. Subject, at the outset, was advised of the Bureau's responsibilities and investigative jurisdiction in the internal security field.

Subject was then asked whether he knew of anything which would aid the FBI in fulfilling its responsibilities, it being pointed out that we were in possession of information tending to indicate that subject was, or had been, connected with the CP.

Subject advised that he was acutely aware that this interview would subsequently be reduced to writing and be made a matter of official record; therefore, he desired to be considered "as cooperative as possible," and would conduct himself and answer questions towards that end. He stated that while he Subject answered "No" to all questions, but subsequently modified his answer to the extent that he admitted having attended meetings at which people, whom he knew to espouse the Communist line, and who had been said by others to be Communists, had attended. He denied that Progressive Party meetings held at Ohio in 1950 fell into this category, and stated that this party, in his opinion, was not Communist controlled. Subject would not further elaborate on this topic.

Subject was asked to state how he came into contact with the Communist movement, how he came to disavow it, if in fact he had, and for any comment he might wish to make on this subject. He stated that his present position on Communism and his attitude was best stated by ARTHUR MILLER, playwright and husband of MARILYN MONROE, in several of the released MILLER had made to the press. He stated, that like MILLER, he had "found Communism in the sifting search for a philosophy of life." He stated that he has "rejected" but has not "denounced" Communism, that he likewise holds all other US parties in similar contempt, and at this point strongly criticized the Democratic party for its Dixiecrat element, and the Republican administration for its failure to make a show of force in the recent racial incidents throughout this country. Asked to explain why he did not "denounce" Communism, but yet "rejects" it, he stated that the word "denounce" is too strong, and that he associated the word "denounce" with certain individuals, usually former Communists, who now loudly attack the Communist philosophy, naming their likewise misguided associates, without the slightest feeling of shame that they themselves had been ardent exponents of Communism.

He stated that Marxism - Leninism is not for the Negro. That now he considers himself a political nonentity and reiterated substantially the following statement:

I am politically nothing, no political party or form of government has the answer to my (the Negro) problem. I no longer have any interest in political philosophy, I believe I am good in this field, I am not the best, but I believe I can do a creditable job. This is all I am interested in, regardless ACGM continues as an informal association of persons with mutual communist sympathies. Approximately thirty persons identified as pertaining to the inner circle of this group, with another forty or so identified on the fringe of this group as well as another thirty who do not reside in Mexico but associate with the ACGM on visits. Residence, employments, and thumbnail sketches of these individuals set out. No attempts at formal organization. Most are relatively inactive for fear of disturbing their status in Mexico. Sino-Soviet schism has been mirrored within the ACGM, and her husband have traveled to Cuba this year.

I. LITERATURE AND PROPAGANDA

During the past two years, the ACGM has not engaged in any sort of production or distribution of propaganda material, among others, regularly receives various CP periodicals such as THE WORKER and the NATIONAL GUARDIAN and thereafter distributes some of this material around the ACGM.

J. INTERNATIONAL BRIGADE ACTIVITIES

There has been no activity noted on the part of the veterans of the Spanish Civil War resident in Mexico. In fact, these individuals, with the exception of the composer, and the writer, are now considered anticommunist by the ACGM.

.reportedly was approached by a representative of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade who desired that he attempt to arrange for General LAZARO CARDENAS, the notoriously leftist ex-President of Mexico, to speak at a reunion of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade in the United States. It made it clear that he did not want to be involved in any such activities.

The Abraham Lincoln Brigade has been cited by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

MOSCOW—MARILYN IS SILENT

The phone bell rang all day yesterday in Marilyn Monroe's luxurious suite at Waldorf Towers, New York.

"What's this about you going to the Soviet Union to study drama?" reporters wanted to ask her.

But all they got was the switchboard operator, who repeated to one caller after another: "Miss Monroe does not answer."

So the reporters tried the Soviet Embassy in Washington, where they learned that Miss Monroe had indeed applied for a visa earlier in the week.

LONG SILENCE

"We are considering it," an Embassy spokesman said.

The excitement started when Mr. Clayton Smith, chairman of the National Academy of Drama, New York, said in London yesterday that Miss Monroe had asked him to get a visa for her "to go and study acting.

Before that, there had been no word for months from the world's most glamorous blonde.

Except a hint, oft repeated, that she wants to "make Dostoevsky's "The Brothers Karamazov" and other serious films."
