Re: Dr. Richard J. Hickey

Several letters and papers by Dr. Hickey have been published in scientific journals during the past few months. As a result, he has received numerous letters and requests for reprints from scientists in this country and abroad.

The following recent writings by Dr. Hickey published in The Lancet are enclosed:

Smoking Pollution, and Health. The Lancet, 2:1362, December 23, 1972.

Smoking, Birth-Weight, Development, and Pollution. The Lancet, 1:270, February 3, 1973.

Coffee Drinking, Smoking, Pollution, and Cardiovascular Disease: A Problem of Self-Selection. The Lancet, 1:1003, May 5, 1973.

I also enclose an article by Hickey and co-authors entitled "Behavioral Regulation of Physiological Homeostasis: Smoking, Pollution and Health" as published in Die Naturwissenschaften, 60:206-207, April 1973; a chapter by Dr. Hickey from the book Smoking Behavior: Motives and Incentives, Dunn, W. L., Editor; and some of Dr. Hickey's comments and questions published in Proceedings of the Sixth Berkeley Symposium on Mathematical Statistics and Probability, Volume VI, 1972.

Dr. Hickey has other manuscripts in various stages of preparation including one or two which have already been submitted for publication. Dr. Hickey expects his current material to be published although he may be required to condense some of his submissions due to editorial space limitations.

We will be meeting with Dr. Hickey within the next few weeks to explore his future research plans and publications.

Sincerely,

Donald K. Hoel
