TO: LEGAL COUNSEL

We are attaching hereto index pages for each section of Volume V, in the order we have arranged them in our master copies. Will you please place these index pages that we are enclosing as the first pages of each section.

So that our master index will enable you to locate any item without difficulty, will you please number each individual page progressively, as shown on these index pages. All future additions to these subdivided sections of Volume V, will be sent to you numbered in accordance with this plan. This will require starting with the number 1 as the first page for each section of this volume, so that additional pages may be added as information becomes available. A blank page is included for convenience in listing the additional pages we send you for each section.

In the event that you find your copy is incomplete, please advise us so that we can send you any missing material.
