TO: LEGAL COUNSEL

We are attaching hereto an analysis of the current data on cancer of the lung, written by Dr. Ian MacDonald, Professor of Clinical Surgery at the University of Southern California School of Medicine, Los Angeles. Will you please place this in Volume V, under the heading, "Cancer Theories".

Dr. MacDonald has been associated for years with the various disciplines of cancer research and is one of the best informed students of cancer research in the country. This summary analysis presents the present opinion of Dr. MacDonald, after discussion with other associated members of national committees for cancer research in which he is active.
