Re: Shook, Hardy & Bacon -- Special Account

Gentlemen:

Enclosed is a copy of the most recent auditor's report regarding the Shook, Hardy & Bacon -- Special Account. As a note of clarification, the disbursement shown in the report relating to Dr. Huber involves his compilation, analysis and computerization of literature relating to chronic obstructive pulmonary disease. I believe that Lee Stanford has discussed this ongoing project with you recently.

On another matter, I recently received a check from the Jacob, Medinger & Finnegan firm in the amount of $37,284.31 that represented the balance of Special Account No. 5 that had been maintained by the Jacob, Medinger firm. As you will recall, Special Account No. 5 was used to fund the Brotman/Freedman project that ran from 1979 into the mid-1980's. I have deposited the check in SH&B -- Special Account and now propose that the monies remain there to be used for the activities supported the SH&B -- Special Account. I would also propose that those companies which supported the final extension of the Brotman/Freedman project (American, Brown & Williamson, Philip Morris, and Reynolds) be given per capita credit in the SH&B Special Account to be applied against the next request for funding. If you disagree with this approach or have questions about it, please give me a call.

Cordially,

Patrick M. Sirridge
